Notice (excerpt) No. 8935/2025/2 published in the Diário da República, 2nd series, No. 66, 03-04-2025

Deadline: 20-05-2025

Opening of an International External Recruitment Process for an Assistant Researcher Position in the Scientific Research Career within the Staff Framework of Instituto Nacional de Investigação Agrária e Veterinária (INIAV, I.P.), under the FCT-Tenure Programme – 1st Edition, reference 2023.12090.TENURE.023 - Assistant Researcher in Precision Livestock Farming: Scientific Area: Animal and Dairy Science/Scientific sub-area: Animal and Dairy Science

An international external recruitment process is open for the hiring of an Assistant Researcher for the scientific research career within the staff framework of the Instituto Nacional de Investigação Agrária e Veterinária (INIAV, I.P.), under the FCT-Tenure Programme – 1st Edition, with reference 2023.12090.TENURE.023.

The recruitment is intended for the scientific area of INIAV, I.P. Animal Production Systems: Nutrition, Feeding and Product, for the Innovation Hub of Santarém, within the scope of the application to the FCT-Tenure Programme – 1st Edition, with reference 2023.12090.TENURE.023 – Assistant Researcher in Precision Livestock Farming: Scientific Area: Animal and Dairy Science/Scientific sub-area: Animal and Dairy Science.

The deadline for submitting applications is 30 working days, starting from the day following the publication of this Notice (excerpt) in the Diário da República.

The recruitment will be carried out under a Public Employment Contract of indefinite duration, in accordance with Decree-Law No. 124/99, of 20 April, in its current version, which approves the Scientific Research Career Statute (Estatuto da Carreira de Investigação Científica - ECIC), in conjunction with the provisions of Law No. 35/2014, of 20 June – General Law on Public Employment (LTFP). A trial period of three years may be established, in accordance with Article 38(2) of Decree-Law No. 124/99, of 20 April, in its current version.

This recruitment process is opened within the scope of the FCT-Tenure Programme – 1st Edition, as provided for in the Call for Applications (AAC) with reference PRR No. 02/C06-i06/2024, under the support measure set out in Article 137 of the State Budget Law for 2024. This initiative aims to promote the recruitment of PhD holders exclusively for permanent positions, through integration into the scientific research career, in accordance with the Programme Contract signed between INIAV, I.P. and the entity responsible for implementing the FCT-Tenure

Programme, ensuring compliance with the strategic objectives defined for the consolidation of the scientific research career.

The recruitment will be conducted in accordance with the ECIC and will follow the principles of equality, merit, and transparency, ensuring full compliance with Articles 9, 10, 15, 19, and 20 of Decree-Law No. 124/99, of 20 April, in its current version, as well as other applicable regulations governing recruitment in public administration.

Pursuant to Joint Order No. 373/2000, of 31 March, issued by the Minister for State Reform and Public Administration and the Minister for Equality, it is mandatory to include the following statement in recruitment and promotion procedures: “In compliance with point (h) of Article 9 of the Constitution, the Public Administration, as an employer, actively promotes a policy of equal opportunities between men and women in access to employment and professional progression, ensuring strict adherence to the principle of non-discrimination in any form.”

In this regard, terms such as ‘candidate’, ‘researcher’, and similar references are used in a gender-neutral manner throughout this notice. Likewise, no applicant may be privileged, favoured, disadvantaged, or deprived of any rights, nor exempt from any obligations, on the basis of—among others—ancestry, age, sexual orientation, marital status, family situation, economic situation, education, social origin or status, genetic heritage, reduced work capacity, disability, chronic illness, nationality, ethnic or racial origin, place of birth, language, religion, political or ideological beliefs, or trade union affiliation.

In accordance with Articles 16, 17, 19, 20, and 24 to 26 of the ECIC, as well as all other applicable legislation, the following provisions shall be observed:

1. Authorisation order

The launch of this recruitment process was authorised by the President of the Board of Directors of INIAV, I.P. in Deliberation (excerpt) No. 257/2025, published in the 2nd series of the Diário da República No. 36, on 20 February 2025.

This decision was issued following a proposal from the Scientific Council of INIAV, I.P., after confirming the availability of appropriate budgetary funds and verifying that the position now open for recruitment is included in the staff framework of INIAV, I.P.. The position is designated for carrying out research activities, assigned to an Assistant Researcher in the scientific area mentioned above at INIAV, I.P.

2. Approval of the present call for applications

This call for applications was approved in accordance with Article 4(1) of the ECIC by the selection committee during its meeting on 26th march 2025, as recorded in the minutes duly approved in draft form.

3. Scientific area

3.1. The scientific area of INIAV, I.P. for this recruitment process is Animal Production Systems: Nutrition, Feeding and Product – Precision Livestock Farming: Scientific Area: Animal and Dairy Science/Scientific sub-area: Animal and Dairy Science.

- 3.2. This recruitment process is intended for the hiring of an Assistant Researcher by INIAV, I.P., under a Public Employment Contract of indefinite duration.

4. General and specific admission requirements

- 4.1. General Requirements – As defined in Article 17 of the LTFP, approved by Law No. 35/2014, of 20 June.
- 4.2. Specific Requirements – As defined in Article 10(1)(a) and (b) of the ECIC, namely:
- Holding a PhD degree in the scientific area of Animal Science or Agricultural Sciences, or, if holding a PhD in a different field, having a relevant scientific curriculum in this area.
 - In either case, candidates must have a minimum of 3 years of professional experience in the field after obtaining their PhD.

5. Salary and working conditions

- 5.1. The salary corresponds to the position on the single remuneration table equivalent to the salary corresponding to index 195 of the 1st step of the Assistant Researcher category, as stated in Annex I of the ECIC. In addition to the basic salary, the employee is entitled to holiday, Christmas, and meal allowances, as well as any other supplementary benefits to which they may be legally entitled.
- 5.2. The working conditions are those established in the ECIC, the legislation governing public employment contracts, and the regulatory provisions of INIAV, I.P. applicable to researchers employed by the institution.

6. Job description

The job responsibilities for the position to be filled are those set out in Article 5 of the ECIC, in its current version.

7. Workplace, type of recruitment process, number of positions, and validity of the process

- 7.1. The workplace of the Assistant Researcher recruited through this process will be at the Innovation Hub of Santarém – Unit of Animal Production Systems: Nutrition, Feeding and Product, without prejudice to the possibility of carrying out activities in other Innovation Hubs of INIAV, I.P., as well as temporary assignments within the country or abroad.
- 7.2. This is an external and documentary-based recruitment process, which will involve the evaluation of the candidates' curriculum vitae, scientific work, and report on their past activities, in accordance with point (a) of Article 9, Article 10(2), and Article 15 of the ECIC.
- 7.3. The number of positions available is one (1).
- 7.4. The validity of the recruitment process extends until the selected candidate has been formally hired by INIAV, I.P. under a public employment contract.

8. Selection Committee

- 8.1. The Selection Committee for this recruitment process will be chaired by Doctor Olga Mafalda Salvador Conde Moreira, Senior Researcher, National Institute of Agrarian and Veterinary Research, P. I.

8.2. The committee members will include:

- Doctor Pedro Alexandre de Sousa Gonçalves, Associate Professor, Technology and Management School of Agueda – Aveiro University.
- Doctor Luís Alcino Monteiro da Conceição, Associate Professor, Polytechnic Institute of Portalegre.
- Doctor Noémia do Céu Machado Farinha, Associate Professor, Polytechnic Institute of Portalegre.
- Doctor Vasco Manuel Fitas da Cruz, Associate Professor, Universidade de Évora.
- Doctor José Rafael Marques da Silva, Full Professor, Universidade de Évora.

9. Notification of admitted and excluded candidates and final ranking

The list of admitted and excluded candidates, as well as the final ranking list, will be published on the INIAV website. Candidates will also be notified via email, as specified in point 11.5.

10. Application for admission to the recruitment process and submission procedure

10.1. The application form to this recruitment process, along with the required application documents, must be addressed to the President of the Board of Directors of INIAV, I.P., no later than the 30th working day following its publication in the Diário da República.

10.2. The application form and all required documents must be, delivered in person or sent by registered mail with acknowledgment of receipt to the Department of Human Resources Management of the National Institute for Agrarian and Veterinary Research (INIAV, I.P.), on working days, between 9:30 AM and 12:00 PM and 2:00 PM and 5:00 PM, at the following address: Avenida da República, Quinta do Marquês, 2784-505 Oeiras. Applications must be submitted by the deadline specified in point 10.1. Alternatively, applications may be submitted via email to oncursos externos@iniav.pt, clearly indicating the reference of the notice published in the Diário da República.

10.3. The application form is available on the INIAV website under the "Procedimentos concursais" section: <https://www.iniaiv.pt/procedimentos-concursais-e-de-mobilidade>. Whether submitted electronically, in person, or by registered mail, the candidate must provide a valid email address in their application. Failure to provide a valid email address may result in exclusion from the process. All official communications and notifications regarding this recruitment will be sent via email with a read receipt confirmation, in accordance with the ECIC and this notice.

10.4. Candidates must submit a signed declaration regarding consent and confidentiality (Declaração de consentimento e de confidencialidade) in the processing of personal data related to the recruitment process. This declaration is available at: <https://www.iniaiv.pt/procedimentos-concursais-e-de-mobilidade>;

10.5. Declaration under oath, in accordance with the document attached to this notice of the recruitment process.

10.6. The application form must be accompanied by the following documents:

- Curriculum vitae in electronic format (PDF), including the candidate's scientific work, as per Article 16(3) of the ECIC, detailing:
 - Research activities, professional experience and training, community service and technology transfer, scientific supervision, and management activities relevant to the position.
 - Identification of research activities in accordance with Article 5 of the ECIC, covering the evaluation criteria outlined in point 12.2 of this notice, particularly those relevant to the scientific area of the recruitment process.
 - The curriculum vitae must be structured to allow a clear and quick identification of the candidate's contributions in each of the subsections of point 12.2.
 - ResearcherID, enabling identification of the list of publications, corresponding citation numbers, and h-index, according to the Clarivate Analytics Web of Science or Scopus database.
- 10.6.1. Candidates must submit an electronic version (PDF) of the scientific articles published in international journals, as listed in their Curriculum Vitae, along with any other works they consider relevant for the evaluation of the selection committee;
- 10.6.2. In the Curriculum Vitae, candidates must highlight up to five (5) works they consider most representative, particularly regarding their contribution to the scientific development and progress of the field related to the recruitment process. This selection must be accompanied by a brief justification, explaining the candidate's contribution to each selected work.
- 10.6.3. The Curriculum Vitae must include a summary section outlining the key results of the candidate's scientific activity and previous professional experience, as well as their academic and professional background. The candidate must justify the relevance of these experiences to the scientific area of the recruitment process and demonstrate how they align with a current and innovative scientific project contributing to the strategic development of the Innovation Hub of INIAV, I.P., at the location mentioned in point 7.1.
- 10.6.4. With the exception of scientific articles, all application documents must be submitted in Portuguese or English.
- 10.6.5. The works listed in the Curriculum Vitae must be submitted in electronic format (PDF) via: USB pen drive or active online link, which must remain accessible until the recruitment process is concluded;
- 10.6.6. The top-ranked candidate in the final ranking list must submit to the Department of Human Resources Management of INIAV, I.P., the necessary legal documents proving they meet the requirements for establishing a permanent public employment contract with INIAV, I.P. These documents must be submitted within 10 days, counted from the date of notification requesting their submission. This deadline is non-extendable.

11. Grounds for candidate exclusion

- 11.1. Candidates will be immediately excluded from the recruitment process if they fail to submit all required documents in point 10, by the deadline, in the manner and at the location specified in this call for applications. Candidates will also be excluded if the documents provided do not prove that they meet the general and specific requirements outlined in point 4;
- 11.2. Candidates who have been approved and ranked in a position that would allow them to fill the advertised role will also be excluded if they fail to provide the required legal documentation proving their eligibility for a permanent public employment contract with INIAV, I.P. within the specified deadline, without justification. Candidates will also be excluded if the submitted documents are found to be inadequate, false, or invalid;
- 11.3. If a candidate is excluded based on the reason mentioned above, the next-ranked candidate on the final ranking list will be invited to submit the required legal employment documents to establish a permanent public employment contract with INIAV, I.P.
- 11.4. Candidates will be excluded from the recruitment process if, their application is improperly submitted or they fail to meet the required qualifications specified in this call for applications.
- 11.4.1. Training courses attended by candidates that do not specify the number of hours completed will not be considered.
- 11.4.2. Candidates holding academic degrees awarded by foreign higher education institutions must have their PhD degree formally recognised in accordance with Decree-Law No. 66/2018, of 16 August, in its current version.
- 11.4.3. If the selected candidate obtained their PhD degree abroad, the recognition of the degree mentioned in the previous point must be obtained by the end of the deadline for signing the employment contract.
- 11.4.4. Candidates of foreign nationality, except those from Portuguese-speaking countries, must demonstrate proficiency in spoken and written Portuguese at C1 level of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR), as defined by the Council of Europe. This language proficiency requirement must be officially certified by a Portuguese as a Foreign Language proficiency certificate, issued by the Centro de Avaliação e Certificação de Português Língua Estrangeira (CAPLE).
- 11.5. The list of excluded and admitted candidates, as well as the final ranking list, will be published on the INIAV website. Candidates will also be notified via email.
- 11.6. Candidates who are excluded under the provisions of the previous sections have the right to a prior hearing. They will be granted a period of ten (10) days to submit their statements or objections.

12. Rules governing the selection committee

- 12.1. The Selection Committee will operate in accordance with the rules established in the ECIC, in its current version.
- 12.2. In its first meeting, the Selection Committee will approve this call for applications, as recorded in the minutes of the meeting, which will be approved in draft form.

- 12.3. In its second meeting, the Selection Committee will verify the admission requirements of the candidates and prepare the list of admitted and excluded candidates, ensuring that each exclusion is duly justified. Additionally, it will initiate the prior hearing process for excluded candidates.
- 12.4. In its third meeting, the Selection Committee will approve candidates based on absolute merit, establish the criteria for ranking those who meet the absolute merit requirements, and define the process for justified nominal voting, as outlined below.
- 12.4.1. A negative vote on the approval of absolute merit must be justified based on one or more of the following circumstances:
- i) If the relevance, quality, and currency of the candidate's Curriculum Vitae, as well as their most significant and high-impact academic contributions, are deemed clearly insufficient for the minimally adequate performance of the Assistant Researcher role in the scientific area of the recruitment process; and/or
 - ii) If the list of five (5) works that the candidate considers most representative, as referenced in 10.4.2, particularly in relation to their contribution to the development and advancement of the scientific area of the recruitment process, fails to demonstrate that the candidate possesses the necessary capability for the minimally adequate performance of the Assistant Researcher role in the scientific area of the recruitment process; and/or
 - iii) If the candidate has not published at least five (5) Q1 or Q2 impact factor publications in the last five (5) years, within the Clarivate Analytics Web of Science or Scopus domains relevant to the scientific area of the recruitment process.
- 12.4.2. Once the candidates approved in absolute merit have been definitively identified, in accordance with the provisions of the previous point, the Selection Committee will proceed with the evaluation of their relative merit, following the procedures established in Article 16(3) of the ECIC, in its current version. For the ranking process, the parameters identified in the following sections may be considered for each evaluation component, weighted according to the preferred parameters specified in point 12.3;
- 12.4.2.1. The QUALITY OF SCIENTIFIC AND TECHNICAL WORK (QTC) of the candidates, assigned a weighting factor of 40%, considering the following considerations:
- 12.4.2.1.1. Scientific Publications: This parameter considers books, book chapters, articles in scientific journals, and papers in international conference proceedings in which the candidate is listed as author or co-author.
 - 12.4.2.1.2. Coordination and Participation in Scientific Projects: This parameter assesses the candidate's involvement in and coordination of scientific projects, which were competitively funded.

- 12.4.2.1.3. Creation and Enhancement of Laboratory Resources: This parameter evaluates the candidate's participation in and coordination of initiatives that have led to the creation or enhancement of laboratory infrastructures or the development of methodologies supporting research.
- 12.4.2.1.4. Promotion of Scientific Activity and Networks: This parameter assesses the candidate's ability to coordinate and lead research teams, as well as their participation in advanced training networks, in collaboration with national and international institutions;
- 12.4.2.1.5. Recognition by the International Scientific Community: This parameter considers the candidate's scientific recognition at the international level.
- 12.4.2.2. PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE IN THE SCIENTIFIC AREA OF THE RECRUITMENT PROCESS, assigned a weighting factor of 20%, considering:
- The alignment of the candidate's experience with the preferred parameters and/or topics specified in the call for applications.
 - The relevance of the candidate's qualifications and experience to the development of this scientific area at INIAV, I.P.
 - These aspects must be clearly presented and proven in the Curriculum Vitae.
- 12.4.2.3. TRAINING IN THE SCIENTIFIC AREA OF THE RECRUITMENT PROCESS, assigned a weighting factor of 10%, considering:
- The level and relevance of the candidate's academic degrees, titles, or professional qualifications, as well as their professional experience in performing the functions of an Assistant Researcher in the scientific area of the recruitment process.
 - These aspects must be clearly presented and proven in the Curriculum Vitae.
- 12.4.2.4. CONTRIBUTIONS TO SCIENTIFIC SUPERVISION, assigned a weighting factor of 10%, considering:
- Supervision and mentoring of students, interns, and research fellows.
 - Professional training activities.
- 12.4.2.5. PARTICIPATION IN MANAGEMENT BODIES, assigned a weighting factor of 10%, considering
- Positions in management bodies of educational or research institutions, or in the business sector.
 - Leadership and coordination roles.
 - Temporary positions and tasks.
 - Other roles: This parameter evaluates positions held as per Article 49 of the ECIC, in its current version, as well as roles in national and international scientific organisations.
- 12.4.2.6. SERVICE TO THE COMMUNITY AND TECHNOLOGY TRANSFER, assigned a weighting factor of 15%, considering:

- Industrial and intellectual property: Includes authorship and co-authorship of patents, industrial models, and designs, assessed based on their nature, territorial scope, technological level, and achieved results.
- Legislation and technical standards.
- Consulting and service provision aligned with the institutional mission.
- Design, development, and execution of scientific projects.
- Service to the scientific community and society.

12.5. Preferred parameters:

- A preferred parameter is that the candidate be a recent PhD graduate with high potential and research capability, aiming to enter the scientific research career, with a Curriculum Vitae aligned with the scientific area of the recruitment process, with special emphasis on their scientific output over the last five (5) years in the field of Animal Production Systems: Nutrition, Feeding and Product – Precision Livestock Farming: Scientific Area: Animal and Dairy Science/Scientific sub-area: Animal and Dairy Science.

12.6. Voting Procedure for the Final Ranking of Candidates:

- 12.6.1. Pre-Voting Procedures: During the meeting, before voting begins, each Selection Committee member must present a written document detailing their ranking of the candidates, based on the approved parameters and criteria. This document will be attached to the meeting minutes.
- 12.6.2. In all voting rounds, each Selection Committee member must adhere to the ranking presented in their written document. Abstentions are not allowed.
 - 12.6.2.1. The first voting round determines the candidate to be placed in first position.
 - 12.6.2.2. Majority rule: If a candidate receives more than half of the votes, they are placed in first position. If no candidate achieves a majority, a new voting round is conducted excluding the least-voted candidate from the previous round.
 - 12.6.2.3. If two or more candidates are tied for the least-voted position, while at least one other candidate is not in that position, a run-off vote is held among the tied candidates. If the tie persists, the Chair of the Selection Committee decides which candidate is eliminated.
 - 12.6.2.4. The voting process repeats until a candidate secures more than half of the votes for first place. Once the first-ranked candidate is determined, the process is repeated to determine the second place, and so forth, until a final ranked list of all candidates is established.
- 12.6.3. The Selection Committee reserves the right to request additional supporting documents from candidates in case of doubt. This includes documents in a foreign language other than English or Portuguese, which must be translated into Portuguese or English and certified by the competent authorities.

13. This recruitment process has been prepared by the Selection Committee and will be available on INIAV website: <https://www.iniaiv.pt/procedimentos-concursais-e-de-mobilidade>, Public Employment Exchange (BEP): www.bep.gov.pt, and EURAXESS portal: <https://euraxess.ec.europa.eu/>. This notice will be published on these platforms following its official publication in the Diário da República.

ANNEX

To whom it may concern

I, [Full Name], candidate for the recruitment process for a position of Assistant Researcher in the staff structure of Instituto Nacional de Investigação Agrária e Veterinária, I. P. (INIAV, I. P.), hereby declare, under oath, that I meet all the eligibility requirements for this competition as set forth by law, particularly in Chapter IV of the Scientific Research Career Statute (Estatuto da Carreira de Investigação Científica – ECIC), as well as in this notice.

I attest that do not hold a permanent employment relationship in the careers of Scientific Research, University Lecturer, or Polytechnic Higher Education Lecturer, and/or an open-ended contract in national institutions not covered by Career Statutes. Additionally, I provide documentary proof that I have benefited from a fixed-term contract or a grant, as a PhD holder, in an institution within the National Science and Technology System, prior to the publication date of the respective notice.

I fully understand that providing false statements will result in my exclusion from this recruitment process, without prejudice to the submission of the case to the competent authorities for criminal proceedings.

I also acknowledge that, if I am placed in an eligible position for hiring in the final approved ranking of this recruitment process, I will have a non-extendable period of 10 working days, counted from the notification of the final ranking, to submit to the Human Resources Management Department of INIAV, I.P. (Departamento de Gestão de Recursos Humanos do INIAV, I.P.), the supporting documents proving that I meet the legal conditions required to establish a permanent public employment contract with INIAV, I.P.

Furthermore, I understand that failure to submit the required supporting documents mentioned in the previous paragraph, for reasons attributable to me, will result in my exclusion from this competition.
